

Please consider the present Indiana law on Telephone Privacy Law when considering this proceeding. This Indiana Law has brought peace to my home where (regarding phone solicitation) there was none before. I was constantly harassed with unwanted calls, messages, and worst of all hang-up (predictive dialers). I do NOT wish to be solicited via phone. This type of communication should be done via postal mail where I can read/process the request on "MY" time schedule. Thanks.